By public transport

From Brussels International Airport

In Brussels International Airport (Zaventem), take either a direct train to Gent or a train with a stop-over at Brussel Zuid/Bruxelles Midi. There are about three trains per hour and the travel time is either 50, 60 or 70 minutes. Get off at the railway station "Gent-St. Pieters". See below for continuation of the travel route.

From Gent St. Pieters railway station

At the railway station take either bus nr. 70, 71 or 72. Get out at the third bus stop on the Tramstraat (=street name) in Zwijnaarde (=municipality name), in front of the research building of Chevron-Texaco. Get into the "Technologiekamp" entrance road that leads to the Chevron-Texaco research building. CropDesign is located in the last building on the right side of the "Technologiekamp" entrance road. Alternatively take a taxi to CropDesign (address : Technologiekamp 3, Gent-Zwijnaarde). It takes about 7 minutes by taxi and the cost is about 10 Euro.
